

The PSAC BC Racially Visible Caucus and the Union of National Employees BC and Yukon invite you to CELEBRATE BLACK HISTORY MONTH!

with a series of posters, facts, and bookmarks that commemorate black writers.

Esi Edugyan born 1978, Calgary

Born to Ghanaian parents who immigrated to Canada in the 1970s, Edugyan's family experienced racism when travelling through small towns within Alberta.

Edugyan's own experiences with racism would come to inform her work especially in her Scotiabank Giller Prize (2011) winning work, Half-Blood Blues, a novel set in the jazz period in Nazi era Europe. If you've ever struggled with finding your own place, or identity, you'll want to pick up Half-Blood Blues.
