Quorum achieved

6:02 pm David called meeting to order, followed by a round of introductions by all those in attendance.

Due to a regional storm knocking out local internet in areas, it was decided to amend the agenda to prioritize the PSAC BC 2026 Regional Triennial convention delegate elections.

David turned chair over to PSAC BC REVP, Jamey Mills who conducted the elections.

Election results for PSAC BC Regional Triennial Convention:

Delegate: David Lewis

Nominated by: Charlie Bodman

Seconded by: Andrea Koomlos

Acclaimed

Alternate 1: Charlie Bodman

Nominated by: David Lewis

Seconded by: Andrea Koomlos

Elected

Alternate 2: John Huang

Nominated by: Charlie Bodman

Seconded by: David Lewis

Elected

Following elections Jamey turned the chair back over to David, thanked all for participation and advised all he had to step away to conduct elections for another committee. David thanked him for his time.

The following agenda items were deferred to next meeting due to weather concerns, as we already had one member drop off the call due to technical issues:

- Approval of Previous Minutes
- Chair's Report
- Treasurer's Report
- Old Business
- New Business
- PSAC Staff Advisor update
- Reminders
- Self-ID via PSAC BC

A Round table discussion ensued which identified WFA concerns, alternation and membership engagement. Alex provided a brief education report and reminded all to check the PSAC BC webpage "events" and "Education" tabs for current information.

The next meeting is scheduled for ~~November 18~~ Thursday, November 20, 2025 at 6:00 pm via Zoom.

The meeting was adjourned at 6:40 pm.
